

AI Receptionist - Full System Workflow

Planned production architecture for calls, intake, questions, scheduling, and human escalation.

Design rule: the language model never manipulates external systems directly; application services validate and execute every action.

Estimate Scheduling Sequence

The customer is told an appointment is booked only after Google Calendar confirms event creation.

